Odyssey of the Mind – March 6th

Budget review – Susan Turregano reported on the following budgetary items:

- Deep Fryer purchase was discussed for future events. Board voted in favor of purchasing the fryer.
- Grocery /Retail budget line item looks negative only due to timing of bill payment.
- Made budget on Fruit Sales.
- Fruit deliveries are scheduled for Saturday 10-12pm. Volunteers needed. Sign-up form being circulated.
- Uniform line item reflects Winter Ensemble tops/shirts. January will reflect Winter Fairshare.
- A committee is being formed to review the Viking Band By Laws.

Ways and Means – Donna Church reviewed the following items:

- December 17th Last Stop Holiday Shop vendor event. The ad would be placed in the Northwest Observer.
- Currently, there are 20 vendors set up for the Last Stop Holiday Shop event.
- Fruit Sale orders would arrive on Saturday. We need hand trucks and volunteers to help unload the trucks at 7:30am.
- Scrip sales - We made $169.85 on the last scrip order. The next scrip order is due on Thursday.
- All scrip orders will be distributed on concert night, December 17th.
- Over 750 TV raffle tickets have been sold. Budget was reached. All unsold tickets are to be returned to Donna Church or Mr. McMath.
- We won the Harris Teeter "We Think Green" contest. A check for $1000 will be presented to the band on the night of the holiday concert.
- The winter guard is raising money for Dayton Ohio trip. Pre-concert Hot Dog Supper order forms will be sent to all via email and will also be posted on the website.

Competition Support – Suzanne Peters and Mary Ann Buck reviewed the following:

- Chaperones are needed for the parade on Saturday, December 12th.
- Dress tops for the concert have been received. Shirts will be picked up on Thursday.

Director Comments – Mr. McMath reviewed the following information:

- Recruiting opportunities – NW Middle School tomorrow night. Those that can help should arrive at the school by 6:30pm if possible.
- Stokesdale Christmas Parade – Saturday, December 12th. Arrival schedules will be sent via email.
- All students should enter by new gym. Students will be encouraged to ride back to school to help with putting up instruments.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:30 pm.
